Aughrim is known locally as “The Granite Village” because of its many buildings constructed from locally quarried Wicklow Granite. This competition will give local and visiting photographers the opportunity to explore and discover the many photo opportunities in this multi-award winning Tidy Town. The many awards bestowed upon the village include the prestigious All-Ireland Tidy Town Award in 2007, a Gold Medal in the Entente Florale Europe and 13 Wicklow County Council Best Town Awards.

The surrounding area will also provide a wealth of inspiration for photographers. Some of the many attractions include woodland walks, rivers and undulating hills with an abundance of wild life and fauna. The town hosts O’Byrne Park, the home ground for Wicklow GAA and also has a Bowling Green and an award-winning Fishing Lake.

More details of the attractions of Aughrim can be found on www.aughrim.ie along with information of special rates in local B&Bs and Hotels for visiting photographers, participating in the competition.
